

2022 WOOD COUNTY FASHION REVUE

Thursday, July 28, 2022

Marshfield Ag Research Station, 2611 Yellowstone Drive

Registration at 6:00 pm. Participants be ready to model at 6:30 pm.

New this year! Not just for sewers! There is more to fashion than just sewing. We have a new option for garments created by you, by any means – knitting/crocheting, tie dyed, ironed-on or otherwise embellished clothing, or even clothing that has been altered to re-size it or make it something new. If you can wear it, you can model it! This event is all about how fashion fits you and your presentation and poise. Add your flair to purchased outfits to create a new look too!

Description of Lots:

Garment sewn/created by exhibitor, for self - examples include knitting/crocheting, tie-dye, Cricut designs, etc. or an altered article of clothing. Complete your outfit with items that complete the look, including accessories as you see fit. Garment will be judged based on choice of materials, how the garment enhances his/her personal body type, sense of style, and meets the need of the wearer. Also be able to explain how your creation was made, materials used, what it looked like before, etc. wearer.

Garment sewn/created by exhibitor, for another person – examples include knitting/crocheting, tie-dye, Cricut designs, etc. or an altered article of clothing. Complete your outfit with items that complete the look, including accessories as you see fit. Garment will be judged based on choice of materials, how the garment enhances his/her personal body type, sense of style, and meets the need of the wearer. Also be able to explain how your creation was made, materials used, what it looked like before, etc.

Buy and Show - “Thrift it Up” with garments pieced together using pre-owned or new clothing to complete an outfit. Bring a complete outfit from home that will be judged on fit, accessories, and wardrobe compatibility. Be able to explain how it fits into your existing wardrobe, answer questions about cost, where purchased, the style you are hoping to achieve, etc.
