WOOD COUNTY FASHION REVUE

Monday, July 29, 2024

Village of Arpin Public Works Building, 6190 Cty Rd N, Arpin

Registration at 6:00 pm. Participants should be ready to model at 6:30 pm.

Not just for sewers! There is more to fashion than just sewing. We have a new option for garments created by you, by any means – knitting/crocheting, tie dyed, ironed-on or otherwise embellished clothing, or even purchased clothing that has been altered to re-size it or make it something new. If you can wear it, you can model it! This event is all about how fashion fits you and your presentation and poise. Add your flair to purchased outfits to create a new look too!

Classes:

Garment Sewn by exhibitor, for self or another individual – Garment will be modeled by the exhibitor or another individual for whom it was sewn. Garment will be judged based on choice of pattern, fabric, and accessories to enhance his/her personal body type, sense of style, and to meet the needs of the wearer.

1. Cloverbuds K-2
2. Grades 3-5
3. Grades 4-6
4. Grades 7-13

Garment Created (not sewn or minimal sewing) by exhibitor – examples include knitting/crocheting, tie-dye, Cricut designs, etc. or an altered article of clothing. Complete your outfit with items that complete the look, including accessories as you see fit. Garment will be judged based on choice of materials, how the garment enhances his/her personal body type, sense of style, and meets the need of the wearer. Also be able to explain how your creation was made, materials used, what it looked like before, etc.

Rules:

1. All youth in grades 3-13 are allowed to enter, one item per class, according to the grade category. To receive fair premiums, you must register through Fair Entry prior to this event. Use the Fashion Revue classes under department 26J.
2. Cloverbud (grades K-2) entries are for participation ribbon only. All younger members will be judged together. This does not count as one of their 4 projects for the fair. Explorers (grade 3) will receive a placed ribbon. This does not count as one of their 6 projects for the fair.
3. Any items created by the exhibitor are also eligible to exhibit at the fair, where it will be judged on construction and techniques used rather than the appearance of outfit/garment and modelers presentation and poise. The items must be entered according to standard fair rules, prior to this event to qualify for exhibit at the fair. Use the appropriate department and class for your items.
4. All judging is conference style. Judging criteria is listed in each category description.
5. Individuals who exhibit at the Fashion Revue will be photographed and included on a poster to be displayed at the fair. There will not be a Style Revue at the fair. If an item has not been entered as a fair entry, there is no need to bring it to the fair.
6. Write a descriptive paragraph about your garment to be included in the poster displayed at the fair. Include information such as the main technique used (sewing, knitting, dyed, etc.), fiber content/main materials used, intended use, general cost, special features, and accessories used. Be sure to use your name, 4-H club (or other youth organization), and any other important information in this paragraph. Write it in the third person. Write a separate paragraph for each class entered.   Be sure to bring a copy of your paragraph to Fashion Revue.
7. Contact Jodie Budtke with any questions. (djbudtke@yahoo.com or call/text 715-650-7918)
